To the conductor, a song of David. How long, O Lord? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me? How long will I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart by day; how long will my enemy have the upper hand over me? Look and answer me, O Lord my God; enlighten my eyes lest I sleep the sleep of death.
 Lest my enemy say, "I have overwhelmed him"; my adversaries will rejoice when I totter. But I trusted in Your loving-kindness, my heart will rejoice in Your salvation; I will sing to the Lord for He has bestowed [it] upon me.

For the conductor, a song of David. May the Lord answer you on a day of distress; may the name of the God of Jacob fortify you. May He send your aid from His sanctuary, and may He support you from Zion. May He remember all your meal offerings and may He accept your fat burnt offerings forever. May He give you as your heart [desires], and may He fulfill all your counsel. Let us sing praises for your salvation, and let us assemble in the name of our God; may the Lord fulfill all your requests. Now I know that the Lord saved His anointed; He answered him from His holy heavens; with the mighty acts of salvation from His right hand. These trust in chariots and these in horses, but we- we mention the name of the Lord our God. They kneel and fall, but we rise and gain strength. O Lord, save [us]; may the King answer us on the day we call.

A song for ascents. I shall raise my eyes to the mountains, from where will my help come? My help is from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth. He will not allow your foot to falter; Your Guardian will not slumber. Behold the Guardian of Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is your Guardian; the Lord is your shadow; [He is] by your right hand. By day, the sun will not smite you, nor will the moon at night. The Lord will guard you from all evil; He will guard your soul. The Lord will guard your going out and your coming in from now and to eternity.

A song of ascents. From the depths I have called You, O Lord. O Lord, hearken to my voice; may Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. O God, if You keep [a record of] iniquities, O Lord, who will stand? For forgiveness is with You, in order that You be feared. I hoped, O Lord; yea, my soul hoped, and I wait for His word. My soul is to the Lord among those who await the morning, those who await the morning.
 Israel, hope to the Lord, for kindness is with the Lord and much redemption is with Him. And He will redeem Israel from all their iniquities.

A maskil of David, when he was in the cave, a prayer. [With] my voice, I cry out to the Lord; [with] my voice, I supplicate the Lord. I pour out before Him my speech; my distress I recite before Him. When my spirit enwraps itself upon me, and You know my path. In whichever way I go, they have hidden a snare for me. Looking to the right, I see that no one recognizes me; escape is lost from me; no one seeks my soul. I cried out to You, O Lord; I said, "You are my refuge, my lot in the land of the living." Hearken to my cry for I have become very low; save me from my pursuers for they have overpowered me. Take my soul out of confinement to give thanks to Your name; because of me the righteous will crown You, because You will recompense me.

given over to trouble or captivity, whether they abide on May the All-present have mercy upon them, and bring them forth from trouble to enlargement, from darkness to light, and from subjection to redemption, now speedily and at a near time.
